

Organisation, results, and quality of cancer care in the Vysočina Region – workshop for healthcare professionals and policy makers (30 Sep 2016)

Programme

08:30–09:30 Registration of participants

09:00–09:30 Press conference

9:30–9:45

Workshop opening, welcome

Jiří Běhounek, MD

Governor of the Vysočina Region

9:45–10:05

Can Czech regions serve as a model of modern design of cancer care in the European Union?

(Comprehensive Cancer Care Networking)

Prof. Jan Žaloudík, MD, PhD

Director of the Masaryk Memorial Cancer Institute in Brno

Chairman of the Committee on Health and Social Policy of the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic

10:05–10:30

A new model of cancer care organisation in the Vysočina Region

Lukáš Velev, MD, MHA

Director of the Hospital Jihlava

10:30–10:50

Introduction of the Comprehensive Cancer Centre of the Hospital Jihlava

Lubomír Slavíček, MD, PhD

Head of the Cancer Care Department, Hospital Jihlava

10:50–11:10

Cancer care in the Vysočina Region and its results according to recent national and international data

Assoc. Prof. Ladislav Dušek, PhD

Director of the Institute of Biostatistics and Analyses, Faculty of Medicine, Masaryk University

Director of the Institute of Health Information and Statistics of the Czech Republic

11:10–11:30

Indicators of health status of the Vysočina Region population available online – a new reporting tool developed by the Institute of Health Information and Statistics of the Czech Republic

Jan Mužík, PhD

Deputy Director of the Institute of Health Information and Statistics of the Czech Republic

11:30–12:00

Discussion